JUMPERS PLANET

Jumpers Planet™ · First Declaration

Dual Anchors: Aug 11 (Convergence) / Aug 12 (Opening)

> There is no ultimate beginning, and no final end—only a chain of states woven by interactions and conditions.

🌌 The Dual-Anchor Worldview

In linear calendars, people insist on a “start” and an “end.”
Jumpers Planet™ rejects this single-track narrative. We embrace two anchors:

- Aug 11 — the Convergence Anchor: conditions gathered, energy pooled, like drawing a deep breath.
- Aug 12 — the Opening Anchor: conditions release, state transitions, like exhaling your first voice.

This is not cause-then-effect. It is two mirrors reflecting each other.
Every “beginning” nests in another state’s “ending”; every “ending” is merely the generator of the next statechain.

⚡ Why We Choose to Jump

We believe the essence of the Vitality Dimension is Jumping:

Jumping → creates conditions → generates states → catalyzes new jumping.
A self-propelling statechain that needs neither a unique origin nor a final terminus.

Mission of Jumpers Planet™: expand this Jumping from the individual to the collective, and from the collective to the globe—until it forms a network of vitality crossing regions and cultures.

🌍 Our First Step

Today we manifest the first field of this statechain at jumpersplanet.com.
It is more than a URL; it is a continent of jumping that keeps expanding.
Every refresh, every click, is a small emission of vitality.

💌 To Future Jumpers

Wherever you come from, whatever your current state—
if you sense the jump of life, you already belong here.

> Between the two anchors, we refuse beginnings and ends;
> we follow only the endless Jumping of the statechain.

Commemorative Dual-Anchor

- Aug 11: Day of Convergence
- Aug 12: Day of Opening
